

The advertisement features a vibrant, abstract background of colorful, swirling, ribbon-like shapes in shades of pink, purple, blue, and green. In the upper left, a white, bowl-shaped device is shown from a top-down perspective, revealing a circular array of small, metallic, needle-like protrusions in its center. In the lower right, another white device is shown from a side-on perspective, featuring a smooth, white, dome-shaped top with three small, circular buttons (marked with '+', '=', and '-') and a transparent, bowl-like base. In the lower left, a separate circular control panel is visible, featuring a grey face with several buttons, including a large 'X' button, a pause button, and a power button, along with several small indicator lights.
